The Graduate Certificate in NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT

Providing effective leadership in the management of nonprofit organizations

Program Information

Two Required Courses (3 graduate credits each)
- Foundations of Nonprofit Sector
- Management and Leadership of Nonprofit Organizations

Two Electives (3 graduate credits each)
Select courses from the following specializations:
- Fund Raising and Philanthropy
- Fiscal & Performance Management
- Leadership & Management
- Health and Human Service Policy
- International Nongovernmental Organizations

The certificate entails completing four graduate level courses (12 credit hours). Students who complete the certificate will improve their ability to be an effective leader in the management of nonprofit organizations.

Program Highlights

- Texas A&M University graduate course credit
- Transcript recognized
- Challenging and varied curriculum
- Nationally and internationally acclaimed faculty
- Flexibility in course selection
- Opportunity to interact with professionals in the field

Program Advising & Application Information

An applicant must have a bachelor’s degree and meet other qualifications in order to be admitted to the program. The most up-to-date application information is found online at http://bush.tamu.edu/extensioned/cnpm/.

Please contact the Bush School certificate advisors to learn more.

Phone: 1-866-988-BUSH or 979-862-7810
Email: online@bushschool.tamu.edu