The Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A&M University offers a three-day professional development program for emerging leaders in the nonprofit and public sectors.

PROGRAM INFORMATION
http://bush.tamu.edu/emergingleaders

CONTACT INFORMATION
The Bush School of Government and Public Service
Office of Extended Education
4220 TAMU
Texas A&M University
College Station, Texas 77843-4220

1.866.988.BUSH (2874) or 979.862.7810
nonprofit@bushschool.tamu.edu

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT PROGRAM
http://bush.tamu.edu/certificate/cnpm/

“Public service is a noble calling and we need men and women of character to believe that they can make a difference in their communities, in their states and in their country.”

President George Bush, 41st President of the United States
WHO SHOULD APPLY?
• Emerging leaders from the nonprofit sector, education, or state and local government who want to improve their leadership skills
• Current graduate students who plan a career in the nonprofit or public sector
• Individuals transitioning into the field of nonprofit or public sector management who want to develop an individualized leadership development plan

PROGRAM DETAILS
• Third week in May
• Begins Tuesday at noon and concludes Thursday evening
• Most meals provided
• Over twenty hours of educational workshops and training
• Workshop topics include:
  • Understanding yourself and others
  • Creating a leadership development plan
  • Double-loop learning strategies
  • Others
• Conference rates available at local hotels

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS
• Three-day in-residence program on the Texas A&M University campus
• Personalized professional development plan
• Dynamic educational workshops
• Networking with peers from the nonprofit/public sector
• Leadership and personality assessments

PROGRAM BENEFITS
• Management skills for positions in nonprofit and public sector organizations
• Leadership skills
• Understanding of nonprofit/public sector management challenges
• Expanded professional network

APPLICATION INFORMATION
An application form and letter of interest are required.

For the form and additional information, go to http://bush.tamu.edu/emergingleaders.

The program fee is $350.

The application deadline is mid-April.

BUSH SCHOOL INFORMATION
The Bush School’s namesake, George Bush, 41st President of the United States, believed in the nobility of public service, which is the cornerstone of all aspects of the Bush School student experience. Dedicated to developing leaders in their field, the School offers the Master of Public Service and Administration and the Master’s Program in International Affairs, as well as graduate certificates in Advanced International Affairs, Homeland Security, China Studies, National Security Affairs, and Nonprofit Management.