

David Harrison McIntyre
Lecturer
Bush School of Government and Public Service
Texas A&M University
4220 TAMU, Allen 1082
College Station, Texas 77843-4220
mcintyredh@tamu.edu
Phone: 979-575-4552

Appointments

2015-Present Fellow, Center for Cyber and Homeland Security, George Washington University.
2014-Present Member, Executive Committee and Curriculum Standards Committee, INSPRS (International Society for Preparedness, Resilience and Security)
2013-Present Lecturer, Bush School of Government and Public Service, Texas A&M University
2010-2014 Distinguished Visiting Fellow, Homeland Security Studies & Analysis Institute (HSI/DHS, Alexandria, VA)
2010-2014 Faculty, National Graduate School, Cape Cod, MA (incorporating homeland security into quality systems management curriculum)
2011-2012 Visiting Fellow, Bipartisan WMD Terrorism Research Center (Washington, DC)
2008-2012 Member, National Security Education Board (Senate confirmed Presidential appointment)
2007-2010 Member, National Board of Directors, InfraGard National Members Alliance (FBI public-private partnership)
2007-2009 University Committee, International Association of Emergency Managers
2007 Advisor on Workforce Development, Department of Homeland Security Chief Learning Officer
2005-2009 Director, Integrative Center for Homeland Security, Texas A&M University
2005-2008 Steering Committee, Homeland Security and Defense Consortium (Association)
2005 Adjunct, LBJ School of Government, University of Texas
2004-2009 Faculty & Founding Director, Homeland Security Graduate Certificate Program, Bush School of Government and Public Service, Texas A&M University
2004-2005 Member, Beyond Goldwater-Nichols: Defense Reform for a New Strategic Era: Follow-on Project, Panel Six: Joint Professional Military Education, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Washington, DC
2002-2003 Member, Defense Science Board Summer Study on Homeland Security: Roles and Missions for Homeland Security
2002-2003 Roundtable on the Department of Homeland Security; Center for the Study of the Presidency, Washington, DC
2002-2003 Adjunct, Elliott School, George Washington University
2001-2003 Deputy Director, ANSER Institute for Homeland Security, Washington, DC.
1998-2001 Dean of Faculty and Academic Programs, National War College, National Defense University, Washington, DC
1992-2001 Faculty, National War College, National Defense University, Washington, DC
1980-1983 Assistant Professor, Department of English, US Military Academy, West Point, NY
1971-2001 Armor Branch, United States Army

Products

Security Related Products

1. McIntyre, David. "Using Directed Studies as a Method to promote Policy Relevant Research." 10th Annual Homeland Defense/Security Education Summit, George Mason University, Arlington VA. (Marcy 2017)
2. McIntyre, David H. and Hancock, William. Business Continuity and Homeland Security: Theory and Practice Vol I. NY, NY: Edward Elgar, Publisher. (January 2012)
3. Graham, Bob and Talent, James (United States Senators). Bio-Response Report Card: 21st Century Biological Threats. Washington, DC: Bi-Partisan WMD Center. October 2011. (staff writer)
4. McIntyre, David, White Paper: Strategies and Methods for Informing Risk Management: An Alternative Perspective. Washington, DC: Homeland Security Institute. September 2011.
5. McIntyre, David. H and Tussing, Bert. "Setting the Scene for a Discussion of DoD's Role in Responding to Catastrophe," in Threats at Our Threshold: Homeland Defense and Homeland Security in the New Century. Washington, DC: a joint publication of the Homeland Security Policy Institute of the George Washington University, the Center for Strategic and International Studies, the Heritage Foundation, and the US Army War College Center for Strategic Leadership. pp. 9-20. 2007. (handle.dtic.mil/100.2/ADA486273)

Significant Additional Products

1. McIntyre, David. I Get It Now: A guide to teaching the novel using Centerline as an example. (College Station, TX: Narrative. November 2014)
2. McIntyre, David. Centerline (novel). College Station, TX: GoodBlood. July 2012.
3. McIntyre, David H. "Strategies for a new long war: Analysis and evaluation." Testimony before Committee of Government Reform, Subcommittee on National Security, Emerging Threats, and International Relations, House of Representatives, Washington, DC. 3 February, 2004.

Synergistic Activities

1. (1971-2001) 30 year career in the United States Army, with duties alternating between airborne and reconnaissance units, and writing and teaching strategy. He wrote congressional testimony (30+) and national strategic documents for the Army Chief of Staff, and the Commander of U.S military forces in the Pacific. He taught in the English Department at West Point, and retired as the Dean of Faculty and Academics at the National War College.
2. (2013-present) Principle Investigator and Faculty Advisor for year-long graduate field research courses:
 - a. Hiding in Plain Sight: Seeing the Future of Crime through Open Source Research (2017 – customer Houston FBI)
 - b. Business Continuity Management: Recommended Frameworks for Recovery (2016 – customer Rentsys)
 - c. Recovering Galveston: Evaluating FEMA's National Preparedness Framework after Hurricane Ike (2015 – customer FEMA)
 - d. Integrated Risk Management at the Local Level (2014 – customer Homeland Security Studies and Analysis Center)
3. (2001-Present) Developed and taught more than 50 courses in national and homeland security topics for 5 colleges/Universities over 17 years.
4. (2005-2009) Created an Integrative Center for Homeland Security research and education at Texas A&M university which reached across departments to:

- a. Create a searchable on-line data base with more than 6,000 annotated sources directly connected to key knowledge domains for homeland security.
 - b. Created and hosted a weekly one hour radio show which interviewed more than 900 experts in the field, and distributed those interviews in one of the first national RSS feeds.
 - c. Created and hosted 32 television segments on homeland security topics, offered individually on line, and consolidated for national distribution by a national research organization.
(<https://www.youtube.com/user/ICHSTAMU/videos>)
5. (2004-2009) Created and directed a graduate certificate program in homeland security at the Bush School, Texas A& M University, with more than a dozen courses and 20 faculty. Taught more than 20 graduate courses in 5 years.
 6. (2002-Present) Hundreds of public presentations on homeland security topics including: 1000+ radio/television interviews (US and overseas); education programs (FEMAx10, NORTHCOMx11, Naval Postgrad Schoolx11, Maxwell Schoolx13, CIA, DIA, FBI, National Guard, Texaco, BP, Transborder Police, etc.) international (Canada, NATO, Australia, Mexico); 300+ public venues.