

Winter 2020

Annenberg Presidential Conference Center

Spring Semester

As the fall semester comes to a close, we want to update you on our plans for the spring semester in 2021. The Annenberg Presidential Conference Center will continue to host a variety of classes for Texas A&M University students.

Keeping in mind the university's COVID-19 policies regarding events and our upcoming class schedule, we have limited availability for clients to book events. Please contact our event manager with any questions.

Texas A&M University Guidelines

As of November 2020, the University guidelines recommend indoor gatherings of no more than 10 people.

For further guidance, please continue to review the university's updates here:

Coffee Talk

TJ and Sarah are the hosts of our awesome new podcast, Coffee Talk! They discuss important topics happening within the event industry. This semester we have also had several guests including our marketing intern, Dionna, Bush School Ambassador, Rachael, & Bush School Senior Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Senior Professor, Dr. Ashley.

You can access the episodes through our website or watch them on our YouTube page. They can also be found on Apple Podcasts and Spotify!

2020 was quite the year! It was tough not hosting events and getting the chance to work with different clients. While we're sad all of our events were canceled, we're hopeful the new year will bring about the chance for us to host you all once again.

As the year comes to a close, we want to thank you for your continued support of the Conference Center over the years. We hope you have a happy holidays and spend it with those you love.

Thanks and gig 'em!
