PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Professor of Naval Science, Naval ROTC Unit, Texas A&M 2020-2023
Texas A&M faculty member and Naval Science Department Head responsible for curriculum development, instructor certification, and academic compliance. Personally, teach NVSC 402, Leadership and Ethics, as the capstone course in the Naval Science curriculum. Additionally, responsible for the education, training, mentoring, and professional development of over 500 Naval Science students and midshipmen preparing for careers as commissioned officers in the U.S. Navy and U.S. Marine Corps.
- Commanding Officer, CATC, Camp Fuji, Japan 2018-2020
Senior leader and executive director responsible for more than 300 Marines, Sailors, and U.S. and Japanese civilian employees, as well as the operation and maintenance of the installation's facilities. Director of activities for the 34,000 acre live-fire and maneuver training area and for supporting the training of more than 12,500 service members annually. U.S. liaison with the Japanese Ground Self- Defense Force for co-use of ranges and facilities. U.S. representative for coordinating disaster preparedness support with local and regional Japanese government officials.

- Branch Chief, Crisis & Counter Terrorism Ops, USPACOM 2016-2018

Principal planner and operational team leader for all crisis and counter terrorism operations for US Pacific Command; a 4-star combatant command. Responsible for daily coordination with service and special operations components to develop, plan, and implement counter terrorism operations in East and Southeast Asia. Responsible for coordination with US interagency partners and regional allies and partners for the conduct of security, humanitarian assistance, and disaster relief operations.

- Commanding Officer, 3rd Intelligence Battalion 2013-2015

Senior leader and director for an organization of 450 personnel within four subordinate commands located in Okinawa, Japan to provide vital intelligence all-source support to Marine Corps forces located in the Indo-Pacific region. Personally responsible for good order and discipline as well as the unit's training and operational effectiveness. Additionally responsible for family welfare and readiness in addition to ensuring mission accomplishment.

- Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence (G-2), 2d MEB 2012-2013

Senior Intelligence Officer for 2d Marine Expeditionary Brigade, Camp Lejeune, NC. Responsible for planning, coordinating, directing, and supervising all-source intelligence operations. Provided daily intelligence support across the full range of military operations for an organization of over 10,000 Marines, Sailors, and Civilians focused on operations in Europe, North Africa, and the Levant. Worked closely with subordinate intelligence officers to develop a MEB-wide intelligence enterprise, ensuring that all nodes were mutually supporting; that production requirements were coordinated to eliminate redundancy and gaps; and that deployment and training opportunities were shared equitably.

- Deputy AC/S G-2, II Marine Expeditionary Force 2010-2012

Senior Intelligence Leader for II MEF, Camp Lejeune, NC and Regional Command – Southwest (RC-SW), Helmand Province, Afghanistan. Responsible for planning, coordinating, directing, and supervising a force of over 700 intelligence professionals conducting all-source intelligence operations in a combat environment in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM. Provided daily intelligence support across the full range of counter insurgency and counter terrorism operations for an organization of over 20,000 Marines, Sailors, and Civilians focused on combat operations in Helmand Province.

- Previous/Additional Experience

28+ year career leading Marines, Sailors, and civilian employees. Privileged to serve in positions of authority within the Fleet Marine Forces and the supporting establishment; inside the National Intelligence Community and as an integral member of a 4-star combatant command; and as an infantry officer, intelligence officer, operational planner, and joint qualified officer. I've been fortunate enough to command Marines at every level and am the first Marine Corps Intelligence Officer to command a Marine Corps installation. I've commanded, trained, and developed Marines and Sailors at the Platoon, Company, Battalion, & Installation levels. Well versed in strategic/operational planning and operational/tactical execution. Well-traveled throughout Asia and the Middle East; strong demonstrated international understanding, intercultural skills, and geopolitical knowledge.
