Howdy & Happy New Year!

Last year, we celebrated 25 years of the Bush School of Government & Public Service. In celebration, we hosted many events and special guests such as Bill Burns, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency; Christopher Wray, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; General Paul Nakasone, Director of the National Security Agency; Joe Straus, former Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives; and General David Petraeus, former Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, just to name a few!

We are very excited for all that is planned for the coming year and hope that you will be able to join us when possible!

As always, a new year will bring a new graduating class from the Bush School. We are eager to see these graduates follow in your footsteps to become noble public servants and continue the legacy of the 41st President George H.W. Bush. Thank you for all you have done to contribute to this legacy and to make a difference in our world. We are proud of you!
